Hunt's Shoes

There is a vast distinction between a cheap shoe and a good shoe. A cheap shoe is cheap but a very short time, that's when you buy it at a less price than a good one. A good shoe costs a little more than a cheap one, but will often outwear two pairs of cheap shoes, thus making a good shoe the cheapest to buy. We may not have the cheapest shoes, but we do claim to have as good shoes as can be sold in town.
